ready to provide two seats if need be."

Bangalore: There's good news for women interested in politics. On International Women's Day, the JD(S) announced that it would reserve at least one assembly constituency for women in every district in the coming elections.

Speaking to reporters here on Saturday, JD(S) president Merajuddin N Patel said: "The party decided to reserve one seat for women in every district. We are

The party has directed district presidents to send the list of aspirants by March 31. The list will be scrutinized by a high-level committee and submitted to party supremo H D Deve Gowda for his final decision.

Along with the application, ticket aspirants should send a demand draft for Rs 5,000. The SC/ST and women candidates should send a DD for Rs 2,500.
